

Vox Mirabilis Chamber Choir – Székesfehérvár, Hungary

Vox Mirabilis Chamber Choir is one of the most active and most creative ensembles of Hungary. Its name is known beyond Hungary's borders and in almost all Europe. Its highest musical qualification is the ARS MAGNA certificate.

The choir hosts numerous concerts, choir festivals and workshops and has organised its own Concert Series for several years now.

Vox Mirabilis regularly gives concerts alongside opera singer Erika Miklós, who is a Kossuth-prize laureate.

In recent years the choir has enjoyed the pleasure of accepting invitations from abroad and being able to sing with internationally acknowledged choirs, musicians and conductors. Vox Mirabilis also performed at international festivals and for several years it has toured in Vienna at Christmastide. The choir is regularly invited to perform at the Nutcracker Festival of the Hungarian National Opera House and each year it gives an all-night concert at Matthias Church in Budapest.

In 2018:

- Municipality of Székesfehérvár honoured the choir with „Pro Cultura Albae Regiae” prize in appreciation of the outstanding artistic activity of the past years.
- The Hungarian Association of Choirs, Orchestras and Ensembles awarded Vox Mirabilis with the Professional Board's vocational prize that is only granted to the best representants of music in Hungary.

In 2017:

- The choir performed on the stage of Vigadó alongside with the winners of critically acclaimed TV Show, the Virtuosi.
- While on tour in Poland, they received an invitation for CD recording from Radio Opole.
- Vox Mirabilis was the absolute winner of „The bridge of music” International Choir Contest for the second time.

The most significant events of the previous four years:

- In 2015 Vox Mirabilis represented Hungary in the international compilation album The Sound of Europe.
- Vox Mirabilis received a gold certificate at the 2nd Choir Contest of Maria Radio, gaining both 1st and 2nd place and winning the category.
- The choir was honorable guest of the Hungarian Culture's Day in Kosice, Slovakia and at the Varadinum Festival in Oradea, Romania.

Radio Bartók regularly recommends their concerts and musical review magazines such as Hungarian Choir or Sound of Music write frequently about the choir's activities.

The conductor of the choir Katica ZEMLENYI, who was awarded for her outstanding achievements in music with Richárd Fricsay Prize and Csengőszó (Bell-Sound) Prize.

Furthermore, Vox Mirabilis Chamber Choir is a community in which artistic and spiritual experiences are lived together and members as well as conductor build their relationship.

Contacts:

Conductor:

Katica Zemlényi

+36 20 9 527 521

zemlenyi@datatrans.hu

voxmirabilis@gmail.com

Choir:

www.voxmirabilis.5mp.eu

<https://www.facebook.com/voxmirabilis/>